RE: FOIA Appeal 2020-192

Dear Mr. Ayele:

This letter is in response to the administrative appeal that you have submitted to the Mayor pursuant to D.C. Code § 2-537 of the District of Columbia Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"). In your appeal, you have challenged the response of the Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration ("ABRA") to your March 29, 2020 FOIA request, identified as 2020-FOIA-04503, which sought answers to a series of questions.

FOIA requires requests to describe the records sought with sufficient detail to allow an agency employee familiar with the subject area of the request to locate the records within a reasonable amount of time. More specifically, 1 DCMR § 402.4 states that:

A request shall reasonably describe the desired record(s). Where possible, the specific information regarding names, places, events, subjects, dates, files, titles, file designation or other identifying information shall be supplied.

In addition, under FOIA, an agency "has no duty either to answer questions unrelated to document requests or to create documents." Zemansky v. United States Envtl. Prot. Agency, 767 F.2d 569, 574 (9th Cir. 1985). The law only requires the disclosure of nonexempt documents, not answers to interrogatories. Di Viaio v. Kelley, 571 F.2d 538, 542-543 (10th Cir. 1978). "FOIA creates only a right of access to records, not a right to personal services." Hudgins v. IRS, 620 F. Supp. 19, 21 (D.D.C. 1985). See also Brown v. F.B.I., 675 F. Supp. 2d 122, 129-130 (D.D.C. 2009).

On May 27, 2020 ABRA advised you that it had no duty to answer the questions presented and otherwise did not have any records that were responsive to your request. Based on the foregoing, we conclude that ABRA properly responded to your FOIA request and we hereby deny your appeal.

This constitutes the final decision of this Office. If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you may commence a civil action in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia in accordance with D.C. Code § 2-537.

Respectfully,

Mayor's Office of Legal Counsel
